MERRY MAIDS' MOTION TO WAIVE ORAL ARGUMENT
AND SUBMIT CASE ON THE BRIEFS

Respondent, Le Fort Enterprises, Inc., D/B/A Merry Maids of Boston, by its undersigned counsel, hereby submits its Motion to Waive Oral Argument in the above-referenced case, and in support thereof states as follows:

Oral argument has been set in this case for May 5, 2015. Respondent believes that the issues involved in the case have been fully briefed, that the Court has the information necessary to decide the case without oral argument, and that oral argument may be waived. Respondent has communicated its position to counsel for the National Labor Relations Board, who has agreed that oral argument in this case may be waived. Hence, unless this Court believes that oral argument is necessary or would be of assistance in aiding the decisional process, Respondent hereby moves for this Court to strike the calendaring of the oral argument in this case, and to decide the case based on the briefing by the Parties.

Dated this 8th day of April, 2015.
